

Places Jacob Visited

What places did Jacob visit? Write your answers on the map. Read the scriptures for more clues.

HINTS!

1. This city (formerly called Luz) is where Jacob dreamed of a ladder that reached up to heaven.—Genesis 28:10-13, 19.
2. This is where Jacob brought his family after he made peace with Esau.—Genesis 33:4, 17.
3. Jacob was on his way to this city (also called Ephrath) when his wife Rachel died.—Genesis 35:19.
4. This is the country where Jacob died at the age of 147.—Genesis 47:28.

ANSWERS:
 1. Bethel
 2. Succoth
 3. Bethlehem
 4. Egypt

- NOW TRY THIS: The descendants of Jacob's brother, Esau, became the nation of Edom. Using Watchtower Online Library (accessible at www.jw.org) or other research tools available to you, locate ancient Edom on a map, and learn what happened to the Edomites.