

How to Explain Your Beliefs About Sex

“Know how you should answer each person.”—Colossians 4:6.

“WHAT—
YOU'RE STILL A VIRGIN?
WHY?”

STEP 1 UNDERSTAND YOUR BELIEFS

Write down a scripture that explains God's view of sex before marriage.

Now list three reasons why you believe it's best to postpone sex until marriage.

STEP 2 EXPLAIN YOUR BELIEFS

First, try to determine the reason why the question is being raised.

If the person seems to be taunting you ...

How might you respond?

.....
.....

EXAMPLE: "If someone said: 'You're still a virgin? What's wrong with you?' I'd say: 'What's wrong with me? I'm not pregnant, I don't have any STDs, and I feel good about myself!'" —Kathy.

If the person seems sincere ...

What scripture(s) might you feel comfortable sharing?

.....

EXAMPLE: "You know, I read something interesting in the Bible. Can I show it to you? It's at . . ." (Read and explain the scripture.)

How might you illustrate the wisdom of God's law to the person?

.....
.....

EXAMPLE: "If you were given a really special gift, would you just toss it to another person you barely knew who wouldn't use it for a good purpose?"—Corrine.

How could you make clear that God doesn't condemn all sex?

.....

EXAMPLE: "Sex is a God-given gift. But God has also instructed us to share this gift only with one person—our marriage mate. When I find that person and get married to him, I will no longer be a virgin."—Serena.
